

SMART Semester Intention:

My semester intention was to update my professional portfolio through updating my resume, personal website, LinkedIn portfolio, and introducing a new technical project to showcase my skills. I selected this semester goal because I believe it aligned well with the activities and projects that I would be working on outside or for classes this semester.